The day is lucid, lucid is the day

Shaped by their living in a metropolis – in all its facets – Luzid put personal impressions, experiences and most of all emotions into a musical garment. Luzid's sound unfolds as diverse as urban life itself: sometime placid with carefully elaborated fragile soundscapes, sometime boisterous, raw and straightforward.

Time and again heavy guitar riffs mingle with tender melancholic melodies - sweet torment being the golden thread woven into the quintet's songs.

But that's not the only way in which Luzid is recognizable. There are few completely female fronted bands out there. Never-tiring guitarists Jo and Katja put their energy and drive on their six-strings, flanking charming vocalist Jenny who powerfully intonates the band's songs. While Sascha at bass and Chris on drums provide the three girls with a solid yet impellent backing.

Live incredibly charming and sexy, Luzid have their followers not only among Berlin's concertgoers.

"Wherever this is leading us to, LUZID has changed our lives."
